Note:

The requirements to submit your college application to the Counseling Office as outlined will allow the counselors the necessary time to complete your college recommendations, high school transcript, and any other outstanding needs. Without your cooperation, we cannot guarantee that your application will reach its destination on time.

*Due to the end of the year vacation schedule, please take special note of the deadline for the January 1st application.

If your college does not have a deadline listed above, notify your counselor at least (2) two weeks before you wish the application to be sent.

Rolling Admission Deadlines-

-Best practice is to submit your application early to ensure that admission spots are available. Again, notify your counselor (2) two weeks before you plan to apply.
